BY O. A. MATHER.
Just two years after opening its doors the Great Lakes Trust company, the latest of Chicago's larger downtown banks to be organized, will go out of business today. Announcement that the institution will be liquidated and its business taken over by the Central Trust Company of Illinois was made yesterday by Joseph E. Otis, president of the Central Trust, and Harry H. Merrick, president of the

RESCUE 329 FROM STRANDED SHIP
St. Lawrence Rapids Peril
Tourists.
Ogdensburg, N. Y., July 17.—A small boat connected with land by a heavy cable hauled 329 tourist passengers in many trips through raging waters of the St. Lawrence to safety today from the steamer Rapids King, which went down on the rocks Saturday in the Long Sault Rapids. The cable was attached to the tiny craft because it was feared that if the boat were turned loose, or even had a larger boat been used, the churning waters would have swept it away.

TOKIO GASPS AS JAPANESE RULER
GOES UNGUARDED
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
TOKIO, July 17.—The emperor left this morning for his summer villa, incidentally shattering several precedents.
This is the first time the emperor ever traversed the city except in the strictest incognito. This is the first time the streets were not lined with troops when the emperor passed, a few policemen only guarding the route. Also it is the first time street traffic was not stopped a half hour before the passage of the emperor.
There has been much discussion in court circles regarding the new attitude of the emperor toward the people, which many desired, but to which many old officials strenuously objected.
This new departure, which is highly welcomed by the people, is the direct result of the crown prince's visit abroad, when for the first time a member of the ruling house mingled with street crowds and shook hands with any body.

A remarkable series of outbreaks in which the victims are tarred and feathered has appeared in widely separated sections of the southern states during the last few weeks. The attacks, numbering a score or more, indicate the existence of a secret organization similar to the Ku Klux Klan of reconstruction days.
The latest victims include a woman in Texas and a well known minister,
a British subject, in Florida.
TARRING OF A WOMAN
Shreveport, La., July 17.—Mrs. Beulah Johnson was taken from the porch of a hotel at Tenaha, Texas, stripped, tared and feathered, according to advices reaching here today.
The attack on Mrs. Johnson, which occurred last night, was said to have been made by masked men wearing white uniforms.
They are said to have driven up to the hotel in three automobiles, fled out displaying firearms, and to have taken the young woman into one of the cars.
The automobiles proceeded to a point several miles into the country where Mrs. Johnson's clothing was removed and she was given a coat of tar and feathers.
Brought Back to Town.
She was then placed in the automobile and returned to the town.
Mrs. Johnson claims to have been working at the hotel as a maid and cook. She says she did not know any of the men in the automobiles and that all were masked.
Beating of a man named McKnight
of Nacogdoches, Tex., by masked men at Timmon, a nearby town, is reported here as another Saturday night development in border towns.
Was Out on Bonds.
Center, Tex., July 17.—Mrs. Beulah
Johnson was brought to jail here today and is being held to the next grand jury on a charge of bigamy. Mrs.
Johnson was out on bond and was surrendered by bondsmen following the tarring.

TOKIO FEARS
ANGLO-SAXON
CURB IN ASIA
Statesmen, Press,
Discuss Issues.
TOKIO, July 16.—[By the Associated Press.]—Japan today seems an empire divided on the great issues created by the summons of President Harding to a conference on disarmament and far eastern problems.
On one side, largely in the ranks of the bureaucrats, there is fear that the proposed conference will be dominated by the Anglo-Saxons and may result in strangling Japan's political and economic development in Asia.
On the other side is a powerful liberal group, which demands that Japan enter into the deliberations fearlessly, submitting her wants resolutely, combating for them with confidence, and not opposing just claims. Hagglings and bickering, they insist, will ruin
the cause of Japan.
Agree Crisis Is Near.
Both camps agree that Japan is facing a crisis requiring tact and largeness of vision. Many members of the privy council, according to the well informed newspaper Chugai Shogyo Shimpo, are pessimistic about the conference; they contend that the proposal to discuss problems and policies of the Far East indicates cooperation between the United States and Great Britain in an attempt to settle international questions favorably for them,
an indication of which was to be seen in the attitude of the English toward the Anglo-Japanese alliance.
Shun China as Participant.
The invitation to China to join in the conference, it is further urged, is additional evidence in support of the theory of a secret purpose on the part of the Anglo-Saxon nations in calling the conference. They argue that China doubtless will strive, with the support of England and America, for a settlement of questions in her favor, resulting in injury to Japanese interests in China. The councilors are quoted as saying:
“Japan should make participation conditional on the settlement of all questions between Japan and the United States, including opening the economic door of all territories in the Pacific to orientals.”
The newspapers Jiji Shimpo and Nichi Nichi condemn the president and urge Japan to go forward without hesitation and present her case to the world. The Nichi Nichi says:
“We have become a sensitive, nervous nation—neurotic. If we are isolated we need not necessarily fear
it. It is more important for us to destroy the national disease of fear and suspicion and achieve our resurrection.”
“Fate of Empire at Stake.”
The choice of Japan's delegation for the Washington conference is exercising the press; which demands the ablest representatives. It has been suggested that Premier Takashi Hara should go, but it is believed that his lack of knowledge of the English language would disqualify him.
“The fate of the empire depends on the conference,” says the Kokumin.
“Japan should reject with resolution proposals impairing rights legitimately secured and should accede from the conference if the situation so requires.”
After expressing the opinion that the invitation to China is incomprehensible, considering the disordered conditions in China, the newspaper says it seems probable that the United States, failing to curb Japan's activities at Paris, has sought a new opportunity in the form of a Pacific conference. The future world's markets, it says, are China and Siberia, and it is only natural that the United States will want to restrict the Japanese, who occupy a superior position there.
“It is quite clear,” adds the paper,
“that America will assist China in the cancellation of the twenty-one demands.”
Japan Rushing Yap Deal.
TOKIO, July 17.—[By the Associated Press.]—Negotiations between the United States and Japan relative to the status of the island of Yap have progressed so favorably that it is now considered expected a settlement of that question will have been reached before convening of the conference called by President Harding to discuss armament and settlement of problems in the Pacific, according to the Kokumin agency, which quotes “well informed sources.”
Also the semi-official newspaper
Nichi Nichi today forecasts that Japan will expedite a settlement of the question of evacuation of Siberia and Shantung and hopes to clear up the

5 Drown as Hottest Day
Fills Beaches

Yesterday was the hottest day of the year. And with the rush to bathing beaches came five drownings and a dozen near escapes.
Up in the dome of the federal building, where breezes which never reach the street are wont to stray, the official weather bureau thermometer registered 96.8 degrees.
This meant a hundred or more down on the pavement. The populace indicated the abundance of temperature with curses, soda fountain patronage, and perspiration. More than 100,000 found relief in the lake, though even the water was unusually warm.
After complaining of the heat,
Michael Swaneek, 407 Walton street,
who was riding with a party of friends in Lincoln park last night, descended from the machine to get a drink of water in the lagoon, fell in and was drowned.
Swaneek was in the car with Joseph Kurgan. Shortly after he got out, Miss Kathryn Budzek, who was also in the machine, heard a splash. Running to the water's edge, she saw Swaneek rise to the surface and sink again.
Boy, 7, Is Victim.
Benny Westerman, 7 years old, 918 Marshfield avenue, was drowned while swimming off the Julius Rosenwald estate at Highland Park.
Adolph Petunnia, 37 years old, 516
South Sangamon street, was drowned in the Des Plaines river while boating.
Petunnia lost his balance and fell into the stream. The current carried him away from the boat and before he could be reached he was drowned.
Joseph Tichy, 14 years old, believed to live in Chicago, met a like fate when swimming in a pool in a stone quarry at Lyons. The boy was seized with cramps.
Walter Schuppert, an employee of the Chicago and Northwestern railway at Milwaukee, dived from a diving board into the lake at Fort Sheridan.
His head hit a rock on the bottom.
He was dead when brought to shore.
Girl Aids Father's Rescue.
Rescue of Ross F. McMichael, 330 Lakeside place, who was seized with cramps while bathing at the Lakeside place beach yesterday afternoon, was due to his daughter, Marion, 13 years old. McMichael had dived from a platform and failed to resurface.
The daughter waited for a moment,
then sprang after him. She caught her father by the head, but was unable to raise him. She rose to the surface and called to other swimmers and Albert Kelly rescued McMichael. He was revived by means of a pulmonary rushed to the scene by rescue squad
No. 4, 1052 Wendland avenue.
Arthur Reschke, 18 years old, 5238
South Union avenue, dived from a platform at the Seventy-sixth street beach and struck his head on the bottom. The injury caused almost total paralysis of the body. He was rescued by Life Guard Edward Stubbs and rushed to Jackson Park hospital. His condition is serious.
12,000 at Clarendon.
At Clarendon beach it was estimated that nearly 12,000 bathers enjoyed the wavelets during the afternoon; Rogers Park reported 8,000; the 76th street
beach, 6,000; the 78th street beach, 5,000; the 26th street beach, 5,000; and the 39th street beach, 5,000.
The body of a man taken out of the lake at the foot of Grace street Saturday afternoon was identified yesterday as that of George Lundbloom, 22 years old, 4635 Hazel avenue. He was drowned Friday evening. The identification was made by Lundbloom's father

FOUR LOUISIANA
NEGROES AT BAY
KILLED BY POSSE
Monroe, La., July 17.—Four negroes were killed and Monroe Ferguson, business man, severely wounded in a gun battle between a posse and a number of negroes near Rayville, La., late yesterday.
The battle resulted from attempts of deputy sheriffs to arrest two negro women charged with beating several white boys whom they found swimming near Rayville.
The dead are: Cleo Collins, Charles
Kelly, Scott Bellfield, and William Gibbs.
The deputy sheriffs who early yesterday went to arrest the negroes returned to Monroe saying that they together with a number of negro men had barricaded themselves in an old house.
A posse went to the house and after hundreds of shots were exchanged and the four negroes killed the occupants were dislodged and arrested.

situation before the opening of the far eastern conference.

Japan's "Golden Opportunity."

Many leaders of Japanese thought are expressing the opinion that Japan will have at Washington the golden opportunity of her history to make known to the world her desires and reach the understanding with the United States which is regarded as so vital to Japan's future.

Despite the reservation contained in Japan's reply to President Harding's invitation to take part in the conference, the answer is regarded as a virtual acceptance.

It is forecast that when America defines the problems to be taken up at the conference Japan will prepare a list of questions which she deems essential for discussion. These, it is expected, will be roughly grouped under the headings of population, food, and raw materials, the last of which, it is contended, should be freely available to Japan, including cotton from the United States and India.

Other Most Questions.

It is generally held that the question of Japanese emigration to the American continent and the British dominions must be discussed in connection with Japan's population problem. Japan also is expected to urge the according of "most favored nation" treatment to its products in all countries and to urge that China should be opened up to the world, including Japan, for residence and business.

The opinion also is prevalent that, as the limitation of armaments is a world issue, there is no reason why a discussion of international problems should be confined to the far east on the ground that the far east is a possible regional seat of causes of war.

Several Japanese leaders are quoted as believing that there are equally grave possibilities of war in Europe and as favoring that the conference also go into such questions as war indemnities, Greco-Turkish relations, and the Silesian situation.

Replied Quickly, Japs Claim.

Astonishment is expressed here that there has been comment in the United States over delay in answering President Harding's invitation.

The invitation was received in Tokyo July 11 and was answered July 14. It was said today in official quarters that, considering the importance of matters involving the Japanese, the government acted with remarkable speed and reached its decision in record time.

The newspaper Asahi today maintains that it is wrong to construe Japan's answer as implying reservations. The newspaper says it is believed that Japan's determination to join the conference will not be affected by the reply of the United States outlining the proposed scope of the conference, and claims that a section of the cabinet desired to minimize the scope, but that the cabinet is ruled by liberal views and desires to discuss far eastern questions and strongly present Japan's position.

Sun Yat Sen "Accepts."

CANTON, China, July 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—The constitutional government headed by Dr. Sun Yat Sen has instructed its representative in Washington, Mr. Ma So, to inform the American government that the Peking administration is no longer capable of representing China and that therefore it is not qualified to send a delegate to the far eastern conference. The instructions intimate that the Canton government expects to have representation in the conference.

See Genesis of World Peace.

LONDON, July 17.—World peace, as the ideal of the proposed Washington conference furnished a subject for optimistic editorials in the Sunday papers.

"America has given a great lead for world peace, and Great Britain will not fall her," says the Sunday Observer, which sees President Harding's invitation as one to consider a policy which will make naval disarmament on the Pacific possible, and does not see in Japan's qualified answer anything more than a prudent desire for a voice in determining the nature and scope of the conference agenda.

"It does not lead us to believe for a moment," the newspaper declares, "that Japan is not prepared for a full conference."

DEVELOPMENT OF GUARD IS VITAL, PERSHING SAYS

Reserves Also Must Be Efficient, Is Order.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., July 17.—(Special.)—Second only to the efficiency and training of the regular army, the most important peace time duty of all regular army officers is the development of the national guard and organized reserves, according to the instructions issued today by Gen. Pershing to all corps area commanders and to the commanding generals, Philippines, Hawaiian, and Panama canal departments.

The special mission of the regular officers, in making effective the intent of congress for the army under the new plan of organization, is emphasized, and the necessity of selecting from among the most efficient officers those for duty with the guard and with the reserves is impressed on all commanding officers.

Guards, Reserves, in Army.

In assuming the office of chief of staff Gen. Pershing, in his letter, said: "I wish to call your attention especially to the important duties of that office in directing the organization and training of the army of the United States, which now includes not only the regular army, but the national guard and the organized reserves."

"In considering those duties in the light of the new law, I wish to impress upon corps area commanders the provision which assigns to them the detailed development of the national guard and the organized reserves. The relation of the war department to this organization is largely directive and is limited in general to the issuance of regulations and instructions as to policy, the assignment of suitable personnel, and verification of progress.

"The success, then, of the great national organization contemplated by the law really depends upon the initiative, interest, energy, and organizing ability of corps area commanders.

What Law Provides.

"It was the evident intent of congress to provide a permanent peace organization for our traditional citizen armies, which heretofore have always been extemporized after the occurrence of an emergency.

"As the law especially encourages the voluntary enrollment of veterans of the war in localized tactical units of the citizen army, it specifically contemplates the perpetuation of the spirit and traditions of the divisions and other units which actually participated in the world war, and as it provides means of military training to prepare civilians for enrollment in the organized citizen forces, it is clear that the purpose of the law is to build up and maintain a permanent military organization.

Congress' Obvious Purpose.

"It must be accepted as the obvious purpose of congress that those officers assigned to the officers of the regular army to create an efficient peace army is most important. Under the law they become not merely officers of the regular army, responsible for its high standard, but they become the permanent or professional part of the larger officer corps of the army.

"In view of the broadened relations of this new army to our national life, our officers should realize the new opportunities that thus come to them for public service.

Wants Partisanship Ended.

"Any lingering feeling of partisanship for the regular army as a separate organization should be avoided. The goal should be the success of each component of the army, each within its proper sphere.

"The separate missions of the different parts of the army should be borne in mind. The national guard, in whole or in part, is liable to service as a first reinforcement of the regular army in minor emergencies. The organized reserves are liable to military service only in the event of a serious national emergency, especially proclaimed by congress.

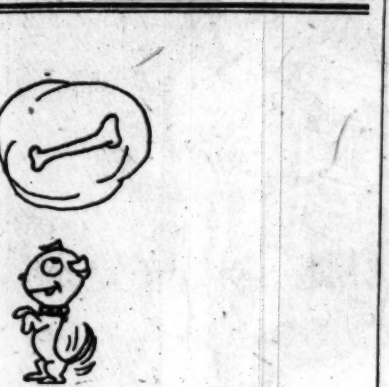

"It is believed that a misunderstanding of this relation has often resulted in undesirable rivalry between the friends of these two forces. Officers of the regular army detailed for duty with either of these forces should therefore cooperate fully in the development of the other.

"It is important that the organization of the national guard should be maintained as near the full authorized strength as practicable.

The Needed Development.

"The requirements for the development of units of the organized reserves for the present may be satisfied if they contain a full quota of competent officers with a reasonable quota of non-commissioned officers and specialists, although it is expected that these units may also be maintained at much greater strength.

"All citizen soldiers who are free to meet the special requirements imposed on members of the national guard should be encouraged to enter that force. All young men after their voluntary training, and the development of large elements of the army, should be encouraged to join a unit either of the

TOKIO.—The semi-official Japanese press announces that Japan is striving through direct negotiations to clear up the Yalu, Shantung and Siberian problems before the Washington conference and is anxious to discuss fully the far east as well as naval disarmament.

WANT IT DONE? DO IT YOURSELF! HARDING RULES

Washington, D. C., July 17.—(Special.)—With the greatest domestic and foreign policies that have beset any administration before him, and with his party divided and without dominant leadership in congress, President Harding is gradually assuming undisputed leadership and in a most natural way, without offending his former party associates in the senate.

It is apparent to the most casual observer of recent moves, that the senate leadership, which for so many years has been able to direct affairs and hinder the executive, even when that official represented the popular view, has collapsed and the leadership has fallen upon the shoulders of the President trained in that school and familiar with practical politics.

This responsibility, Republicans say, has come to the President unsought and without an arbitrary interference with legislative prerogatives.

SENATE REPORT COMMENDS SIMS, FLAYS DANIELS

War Navy Critic Emerges with Flying Colors.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—[Special.]—Admiral Sims is not only vindicated but commended for his letters to Secretary of the Navy Daniels in January, 1920, on the naval lessons of the war, his course approved throughout, and the tardiness of the administration in carrying out his recommendations roundly condemned. In the majority report made public today of the senate naval affairs subcommittee which investigated the Sims-Daniels controversy last year.

Recommends Two Commissions.
The report, signed by the three Republican members of the subcommittee, Senators Hale of Maine, chairman, Ball of Delaware, and Keyes of New Hampshire, recommends the appointment of two commissions for the following purposes:

One, a professional commission to be appointed by the secretary of the navy to study all the matter brought out before the committee and in the possession of the department and other sources bearing on the naval lessons of the war and make a confidential report thereon for the use of the navy department.

Another, a commission, including civilians as well as naval officers, to be appointed by the President to consider the reorganization of the navy department and recommend to congress such changes as it may deem advisable.

Minority Report Disagrees.
The minority report—signed by the two Democratic members of the subcommittee, Senators Pittman of Nevada and Trammell of Florida—finds all the major charges made by Admiral Sims of delays on the part of the department resulting in prolongation of the war, and loss of lives, of shipping and of money, "wholly disproved," his other charges, "trivial and pointed," and the record made by the United States naval forces as a demonstration of the wisdom of the policies and plans of the navy department.

Majority Committee Report.
The majority report states the conclusions of the subcommittee in part as follows:

"We find that Rear Admiral Sims was not only within his rights in writing as he did to the secretary of the navy on Jan. 7, 1920, concerning certain naval lessons of the war, but we find also that as Rear Admiral Sims was in a very responsible position during the war and knew that important lessons could be learned through his observations, it was his duty to write as he did, making no frank and confidential criticism to the secretary of the navy."

"We find that his intention in writing the aforesaid letter was to bring about a betterment of the navy through calling attention to the mistakes that had been made by the navy department during the early months of the war. We find further that Rear Admiral Sims acted with entire propriety in reading his letter of Jan. 7, 1920, to the subcommittee of the senate committee on naval affairs when he was requested to do so by the chairman of the subcommittee."

Arrivals Daniels for Delay.
"We find that on the very day war broke out in Europe, Aug. 1, 1914, the general board wrote to Secretary Daniels, urging him to prepare the navy for war; that nothing was done to follow out the recommendations contained in the letter until, in April, 1916, in reply to a demand from the senate for the production of the aforesaid communication, Secretary Daniels informed the senate that the communication did not refer to naval preparedness; that until shortly before the entrance of the United States into the war Secretary Daniels opposed the organization of the navy department so that it could prepare the navy for war, and in particular opposed the effective creation of a planning division in the bureau of operations, and that said planning division was not finally organized until some time after the armistice; that the great building program inaugurated by the department in 1916, while admirably adapted to the building up of a permanent navy, did not take into consideration the existing conditions in the European war and did not provide especially for anti-submarine war vessels to be used against Germany."

No Anti-Submarine.
"Further, that no special attempt was made to push the construction for anti-submarine warfare, of the anti-submarine vessels which were included in the 1916 program; that Secretary Daniels also vetoed the urgent request of the general board for an increase of the personnel of the navy of 19,000 men in 1915, which veto was at the root of the inadequate manning of our fleet at the time of our entry into the war."

Convoy System Due to Sims.
"We find that to a large degree to Rear Admiral Sims belongs the credit for bringing about the convoy system which proved such a success in protecting our ships from German submarines, and that the navy department persisted in opposing this system during the first two months of the war and did not accede to it fully until some time about the middle of July, 1917. We find that although virtually all naval authorities recommended immediate concentration of anti-submarine forces in the war zone, yet it was not until April 24, 1917, that any anti-submarine craft set sail from the United States to the war zone; and that only six destroyers were so detached."

"We find that about this time the general board most insistently urged that 200 anti-submarine craft be sent immediately overseas and at the same time pointed out that more than 200 of such craft were available and that there were over 2,000 naval guns available wherewith to arm them."

The admiral, the report states, was not kept advised either as to the policy of the navy department or in regard to the forces being sent him, his requests were answered only after long delays, and he was not provided with an adequate staff to carry on his important duties. His requests for bat-

NOTHING TO DO BUT GET WELL

Though surveys of the situation reveal that the government has not been as assiduous as it might have been in caring for disabled veterans of the war, there is at least one sanctuary in the vicinity of Chicago where conditions are conducive to the ex-fighters' restoration to health and usefulness. It is the Fort Sheridan hospital. The picture shows a group of patients bathing in the lake—a beneficial and popular diversion which the admirable location of the hospital affords.

tieships were not acceded to until after a delay of more than eight months; or submarines until after a delay of six months.

Sims Right on Mine Barrage.
On the much discussed issue of the mine barrage in the North sea, the report is explicit in its support of the admiral's position.

"We find," it states, "that Rear Admiral Sims was justified in opposing the laying of the North sea mine barrage during the first few months of the war, when the available mines to be used in the barrage were unsatisfactory and when in the opinion of essentially all experts all efforts should then be concentrated actively and offensively against the submarines, which then threatened to cause the collapse of the allied cause before the end of 1917."

Says Daniels "Reformed."
"It should be realized clearly that the conditions and policies herein criticized were only those pertaining until toward the close of 1917. Thereafter the naval war was carried on in such a way as to reflect most creditably on the navy department as well as on the admiral. And similarly it is with pleasure that it can be recorded that the entire point of view expressed by Secretary Daniels on naval matters changed from that of the former service conduct before and during 1917 we have been obliged to criticize so sharply."

TURKS RETREAT BEFORE 4 SIDED GREEK ATTACK

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 17.—The development of Greek offensive in Asia Minor, in four directions is reported. The forces of Mustafa Kemal are said to be retreating over the whole front, but are defending their ground spiritedly and are keeping in contact with the enemy.

Battle Near Kutais.
ATHENS, July 17.—The Greek offensive in the direction of Kutais, says an official communique issued by the war office today, is proceeding normally. On July 13, the Greeks repulsed violent attacks at Kavaler and it is declared the Turks left on the field 120 men killed and a number of machine guns and rifles of Russian model.

Hoover Names C.E. Herring as New Agent to Berlin

Washington, D. C., July 17.—Selection of the American official, who, upon conclusion of the peace formalities, will be the first accredited representative of this country to Germany since severance of diplomatic relations in 1917, was announced tonight by Secretary Hoover, who said he had named Charles F. Herring, first assistant director of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, as trade commissioner to Berlin.

400 WOUNDED YANKS ENJOY A "DREAM CAMP"

No Rifles to Clean, No Inspection to Stand.

It's the sort of camp the soldier used to dream about.

All day long they laze around—the boys that were wounded in the great war—and neither bugle call nor puttees officer worries them a whit. There are 400 veterans in all, each enjoying two weeks of vacation in the martial precincts of Fort Sheridan.

A few carry crutches. Some are minus an arm. Others limp a bit. All wear the little silver button which denotes service and suffering. For the last year they have been studying in universities and schools of the middle west under the auspices of the federal board of vocational education for wounded and disabled veterans.

No Trench to Take.

You can see them lounging in steamer chairs. Nothing to do for a fortnight but smoke and read and talk. No rifle to clean, no inspection to stand, no trench to take.

A bugle blows from far over the parade ground.

"First call," chuckles one of the silver buttoned boys. "Some poor devils have got to stand out under the hot old sun and look straight to the front—and if a peaky fly lights on them and sinks his biter into their neck they can't even raise a hand to swat him. O, man!"

He moves his steamer chair a bit to escape the sizzling sun rays and the conversation quickly migrates to a mud soaked foreign land. Silver button No. 1 and silver button No. 2, ensconced in a contiguous seat, are recalling with gusto the morning a bugle was blown upon third base.

Some prefer the strenuous life and spend the morning in chasing the festive baseball about a scorching diamond. The Alane is non-existent to silver button No. 3 as he swoops down upon third base.

Others head for the lake to swim.

No Revellie Worries Him.

Evening finds them rambling down to Ravinia park or heading towards Chicago to see a show. A committee of citizens, many of them Chicagoans, is arranging band concerts and other entertainments for them, and if a hospitable and grateful householder chooses to show the boys the sights of the town there's no harm done. For discipline is absent in the camp of the silver buttons and your veteran may come or go as he pleases.

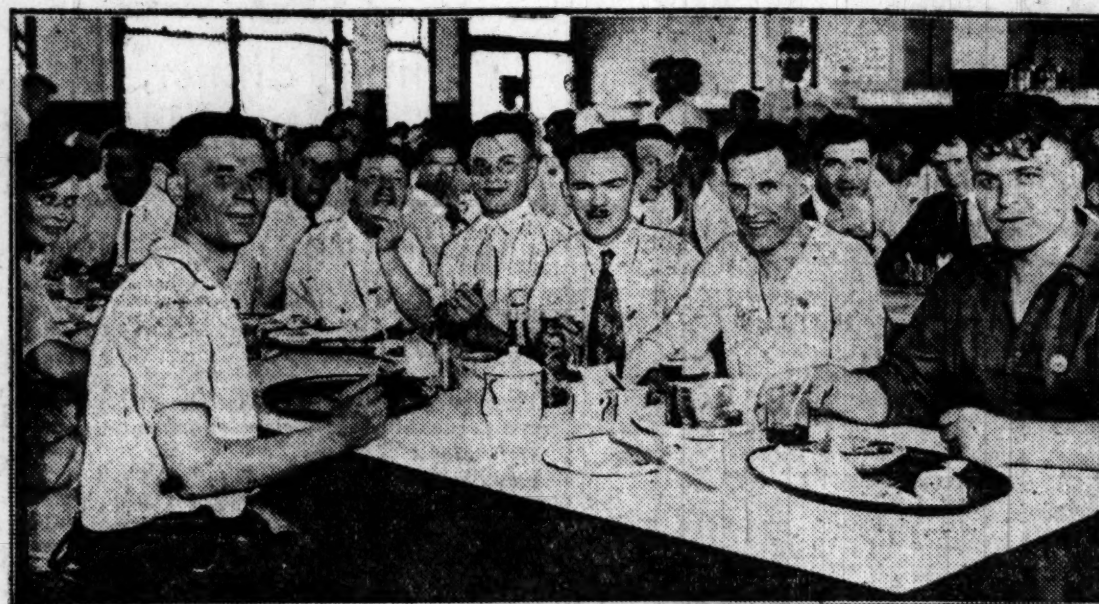

What cares he if he arrives on the last train? The sunrise gun can boom and revellie blow and he will blink an eye, cuss the twain as he did in days gone by, and snore once more in utter disregard.

In fact, there is only one bugle-call that he cares about. That's the one which sings of food in the mess hall under the trees.

All For $1 a Day.

All of which costs him $1 a day—a mere fraction of the government compensation which he receives. The deficit is paid by the Fort Sheridan association, of which Myron Adams is the camp representative.

After another week the first 400 will return home, traveling on reduced railroad rates. Another crowd of wounded veterans will take their place. When the place closes Sept. 1, 5,000 men will have loaded and played in the camp of the silver buttons.

Beans are barred from the tables at the Fort Sheridan hospital. The patients had enough in the training camps of America and in France. The food is plentiful and wholesome and is well cooked. The photographer found the Yanks at their Sunday dinner.

MILLION BRITISH WANT DISARMAMENT; VIEWS MADE KNOWN

Ottawa, Ont., July 17.—A proposal that the views of the 7,000,000 former soldiers and sailors of the British empire on the question of universal disarmament be placed before the coming Washington conference was made today by the dominion command of the Great War Veterans' association. The suggestion was made that Field Marshal Earl Haig, president of the British Empire Service League, should clearly place before the British representatives to the Washington conference the fact that the former service men generally are in favor of disarmament, consistent with the provisions for the defense of the empire in case of emergency.

"Sir Walter Raleigh" of Police to Wed His Queen

Years ago, before the war, Policeman Eugene Kirby, 1710 North La Salle street, used to semaphore at state and Madison streets. Each evening he helped a girl across the street. He didn't know her name; vice versa. When the war began Kirby became a secretary for the K. of C. The girl missed him. A year ago Kirby spent a furlough in Michigan. (And there he met Miss Eva Marie Paschke, 901 Sheridan road. Tomorrow the star policeman and the girl will be married at Holy Name cathedral.)

Troops Ordered Out in Japanese Strike

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
TOKIO, July 17.—Gov. Ariyoshi of Kobe has requested military assistance in view of further threats of shipyard strikers. Today a battalion of infantry was ordered to the scene while 300 bluejackets from the cruiser Oikawa were landed. The troops are standing by the governor's proclamation that they would not be used except in case of violence. Several hundred police are guarding the offices of the shipbuilding companies. The battleship Kaga is being built at the Kawasaki yard and several submarines at the Mitsubishi yard.

SOON YOU WILL BE ABLE TO GET CLEANER MONEY

New York, July 17.—[Special.]—Cleaner money is to be put into circulation. The Merchants' association has received from Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, a letter making this promise.

"The condition of the paper money in circulation was very bad up to six months ago," the secretary wrote. "This situation, happily, is passed, and an increased currency printing program was inaugurated several months ago."

'BLACK SOX' MEET THEIR ACCUSERS, BUT GAIN NOTHING

Gedeon and Burns Refuse to Reveal Testimony.

Accused and accusers met with a smile and a shake of the hand yesterday when the seven former White Sox baseball players who go to trial in the Criminal court this morning confronted in the state's attorney's office the two main witnesses against them, William "Bill" Burns and Joe Gedeon.

"We had thought there might be a fight," said Assistant State's Attorney George Gorman, "and we had several detectives on hand to guard against it. But the men were very amiable. They shook hands and greeted one another pleasantly."

The meeting of the ball players took place in accordance with an order of Judge Hugo M. Friend directing that the state's attorney give the attorneys for the defense an opportunity to interview Burns, a former White Sox pitcher, and Gedeon, who formerly played with the St. Louis Browns.

The accused former White Sox stars and their lawyers made a small crowd when they marched into the prosecutor's office. The attorneys for the defense are James C. O'Brien, Benedict J. Short, Thomas D. Nash, Michael J. Ahearn, Max Luster, and Henry A. Berger.

They attempted to interview Burns and Gedeon concerning the nature of the testimony the latter are to give in the trial, but the two witnesses told them nothing. They asserted they would make their statements in court only, and persistent questioning by the defense lawyers failed to move them. During the interview Assistant State's Attorney Gorman asked the defendants to leave the room.

Oppose Burns' Freedom.
Burns, who is also under indictment as well as the seven he is to testify against, had been in the custody of Detective Sergeant John F. Murphy of the state's attorney's office. The attorneys for the defense this morning will request Sheriff Peters to take Burns in charge. They declare that, inasmuch as he is under indictment, he should either be properly released on bonds or be in the county jail.

Besides the seven ball players who are to go to trial, there are four alleged gamblers. The defendants are: Edward "Eddie" Cloutte, pitcher; Claude "Lefty" Williams, pitcher; George "Buck" Weaver, third baseman; Charles "Swole" Richerz, shortstop; Arnold "Chick" Gandil, first baseman; Joseph "Shoelless Joe" Jackson, outfielder; Oscar "Happy" Felsch, outfielder, and the four alleged gamblers, Carl Zorke, Louis and Ben Levy, and Davis Zeller.

READY TO WASH THE BLACK SOX

From left to right the lawyers who will fight for the acquittal of the so-called "Black Sox" and their alleged associates in the gambling plot are: Former Assistant State's Attorney James C. O'Brien, Benedict J. Short, Thomas D. Nash, Michael J. Ahearn, Max Luster, and Former Assistant State's Attorney Henry A. Berger.

MEXICO OBTAINS MAC VEAGH HOME FOR AN EMBASSY

Washington, D. C., July 17.—[Special.]—The home of Franklin MacVeagh of Chicago at 2329 16th street has been purchased by the Mexican government to be used as the home of its ambassador.

Work will be started at once on the erection of a chancery to the north of the house, and it is expected that this small building will be completed in two months, when the offices at 1413 I street, which have been the embassy since there has been a Mexican ambassador, will be moved.

The home was built by the late Mrs. Franklin MacVeagh as a birthday present to Mr. MacVeagh, then secretary of treasury. It has recently been occupied by the former third secretary of state and Mrs. Breckenridge Long, who gave the use of the house to the government for the entertainment of Lord Balfour and his mission when they were guests of America and again when the king and queen of Belgium were the guests of this country. The house is one of the few residences here having a pipe organ, which also has the added attraction of a set of beautiful chimes.

THROWS STEER BY HORNS AFTER LEAP FROM AUTO

Cowboys at Rodeo Use Motors for Ponies.

Leaping from the running board of an automobile to the horns of a madly charging Mexican steer and throwing the animal to its back by sheer strength, was the feat performed yesterday by Slim Caskey at the cowboy's world's championship contests being held daily in Grant park for the benefit of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society.

This Is Bulldozing.

A wild steer with a twenty-five foot start on the cowboy is pursued, the cowboy leaping from his horse, grasping a horn with one hand and the other arm around the animal's neck, feet sliding forward acting as a brake to check the momentum of both man and beast. A sudden twist and the steer is on his back and his conqueror bowing to the multitude. This is the bulldozing that features the performances.

The best time yesterday was 13.5 seconds, made by Buck Lucas. Slim Caskey, from a horse and with a little hard luck, downed his steer in 21 seconds.

Honors for calf roping went to Jim Massey. He chased, roped, threw, and hog tied his calf in 28 seconds. "Handsome" Tommy Kirman, world's champion, was out of luck as he went down the rope. His horse kept going and so did the calf. It took him more than a minute to catch and conquer his opponent.

Cowgirls Furnish Thrills.

Alberta Frank successfully rode C. Cross Black, the buckin'est of the bronks, for the honors of the day. Sandy Hawks had difficulty with Dynamite, a man-killer formerly with the 11 cavalry and still unbroken. Little Toots Ayres tried his luck on Grizzly Sal, 1,400 pounds of the worst horse-flesh. He escaped without harm by strategically leaping to the fence top. Mrs. Bea Kirman, wife of Handsome Tommy, and herself a champion; Rose Anderson, May Cody, and Vera McGinnis were among the fair performers who hope to annex titles. Miss McGinnis has been doubling for movie stars in the dare-devil riding stunts.

Fancy rope throwing by Champion Johnny Judd and Leonard Stroud, champion trick rider, were features. Stroud had a good day, winning the relay and Roman standing races.

One thousand wounded soldiers will be the guests of the knights today through the efforts of the Knights of Columbus.

Meat for America Held in Australia; U. S. Protests

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

SYDNEY, July 17.—The United States government has protested at the refusal of the New Zealand government to grant a meat export license to Armour & Co., which for this reason is not able to export 300,000 sides of meat now being held in cold storage. The government's refusal is based on the ground that the company, though registered in New Zealand, uses American capital and the brand "Armour and Company, Chicago."

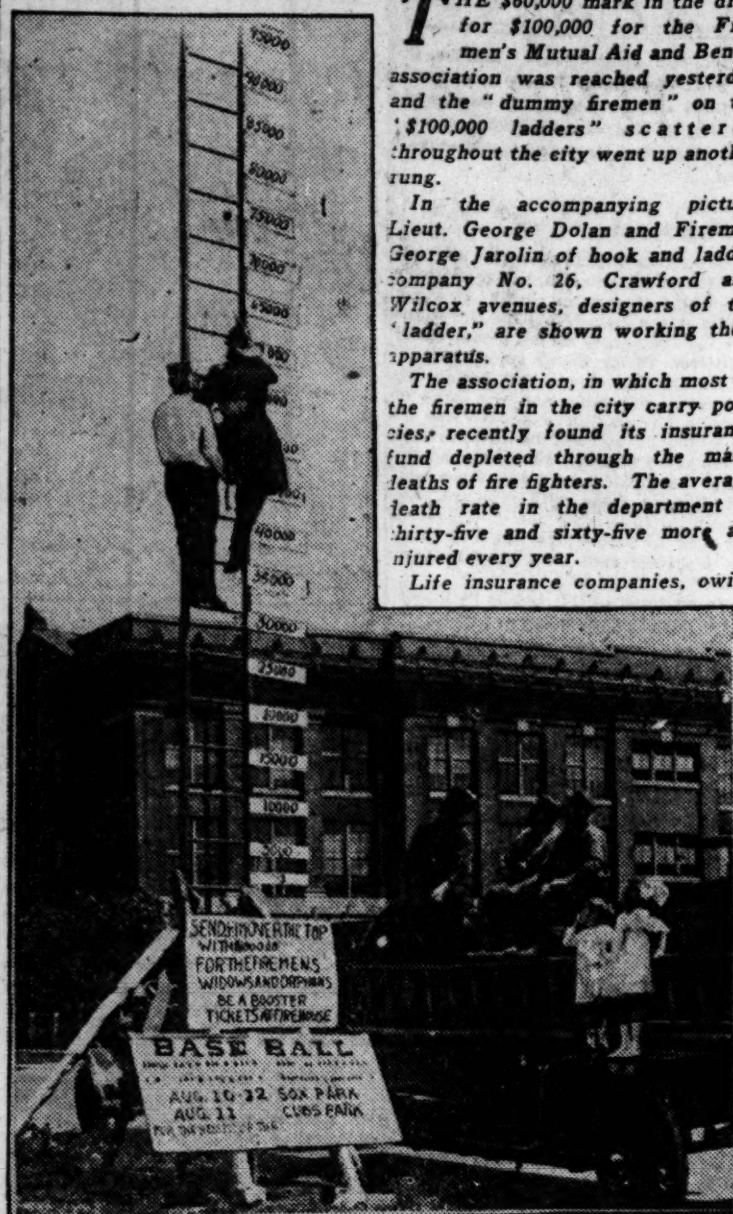

GOING UP!

THE $50,000 mark in the drive for $100,000 for the Firemen's Mutual Aid and Benefit association was reached yesterday and the "dummy firemen" on the $100,000 ladders scattered throughout the city went up another rung.

In the accompanying picture Lieut. George Dolan and Fireman George Jarolin of hook and ladder company No. 26, Crawford and Wilcox avenues, designers of the "ladder," are shown working their apparatus.

The association, in which most of the firemen in the city carry policies, recently found its insurance fund depleted through the many deaths of fire fighters. The average death rate in the department is thirty-five and sixty-five more are injured every year.

Life insurance companies, owing to the hazard incurred by the firemen, have fixed the premium at a very high rate—much higher than that charged by the association.

Tickets for the baseball games between New York and Chicago firemen on Aug. 10, 11, and 12 are also being sold to swell the fund. The tickets can be procured at any engine house. Donations must be sent to Clayton F. Smith, city treasurer, city hall.

$100,000,000 DRIVE IN N. Y. TO HOUSE 20,897 FAMILIES

New York, July 17.—(Special.)—Plans to expend $100,000 in new housing construction, to provide homes for 20,897 families, have been filed in New York City since the tax exemption ordinance went into effect, said Henry H. Curran, borough president of Manhattan.

Quoting the building bureau's figures in the five boroughs, President Curran said that in the nineteen weeks between Feb. 25 and July 9 plans had been filed for the accommodation of 20,897 families, of which 11,902 will live in small brick or frame dwellings and 8,995 in apartments.

During the same period last year quarters for 6,604 families at an expenditure of $27,143,000 were made. The increase in the expenditure provided for since the tax exemption over the same period last year is 370 per cent in the amount of money and 218 per cent in the number of families provided for.

DRYS RALLYING FORCES TO STOP MERCY TO WETS

Circularize Senate, Begging for Their Law.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—(Special.)—The Anti-Saloon league, anxious that no inroads be made on congress by the wets in the development campaign of liberalization of prohibition, has called its national executive committee into action.

The committee has addressed a communication to every member of the senate, urging passage of the pending bill to prohibit the use of beer for medicinal purposes. Members of the executive committee are Frederick Fosdick, chairman; Ernest H. Cherrington, secretary; and P. A. Baker, general superintendent. After pointing out the emergency character of the anti-beer bill, the executive committee members say:

"Failure to prohibit the use of beer as a medicine, never listed as such in the United States pharmacopoeia, will reopen the breweries and subject the states which have not yet abandoned its medicinal use to a flood of beer, which would at once become a national scandal."

"The beverage use of liquor cannot be successfully prohibited unless its lawful manufacture and use are properly regulated."

"There is not an effective prohibition law in any of the states that does not control the prescribing of liquor for medicinal purposes and thus prevent its diversion to beverage uses."

Fear National Scandal.

"The presence of millions of gallons of distilled liquors in the distilleries and government warehouses is a constant temptation to evade the law and fully justifies the limitation upon importation and further manufacture that is provided in the bill."

"The lack of jurisdiction of the courts in Hawaii and the Virgin Islands to enforce the eighteenth amendment and the national prohibition act presents an emergency apparent to all."

"The charge that the bill is drastic and fanatical is without foundation."

220 BOYS ARRIVE FOR NEW SET AT CAMP ROOSEVELT

Muskegon, Mich., July 17.—(Special.)—Two hundred and twenty-five boys arrived at Camp Roosevelt today for the opening of the second period. A special boat brought most of them from Chicago, although many came from Michigan cities. The total enrollment is about 900.

About 300 Chicago boys will arrive tomorrow for the two boy scout camps in Muskegon county. It is estimated 3,500 Chicago boys will spend a few weeks at Camp Roosevelt and the scout camps during the summer.

Boys at Camp Roosevelt were allowed to visit Muskegon yesterday and today.

ANOTHER MEXICO REVOLT IS OVER

Mexico City, July 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—The revolt headed by Gen. Martinez Herrera in the Tampico oil region has apparently broken down, without the firing of a shot. Herrera's request that he be permitted to surrender has resulted in an order for the disarming of his 150 followers.

Two minor revolts occurred near Zacamitla yesterday, according to newspaper advices, but only a few men were involved.

Persons close to President Obregon describe him as optimistic over international relations. He is quoted as expressing his confidence that difficulties between Mexico and the United States would be cleared up within three months.

From the Hills of Asia to the Loop

The wild hill tribes of India look upon human life as a commodity, to be dealt in lightly.

As man rises in the scale of civilization his perception of the dignity and value of life is enhanced, and he exercises more and more particularity in his choice of food, the foundation of health.

Not only is it essential that the food itself shall be proper in kind but, also, it is imperative that the greatest precaution be taken to insure that neatness of service which is the outward sign of observance of hygienic rules. In this, as in other respects, comparisons are respectfully solicited.

80% OF AUTO THEFTS LAID TO OWNERS' PLOTS

Frauds to Get Insurance Charged by Police.

Charges that 80 per cent of the automobiles stolen in Chicago are spirited away and ditched or burned with the consent of the owners were made yesterday by Sergeant Michael Neery of the auto squad.

The charges came as the sequel to the finding of an automobile in a quarry at Palos Park, Ill., by Police- men Doyle and Shea of the auto detail. "We received a tip Saturday that this car was there," Neery said. "Doyle and Shea were sent after it. They found it had been reported stolen on June 8.

Can't Find Owner. "The owner of the car has applied for his insurance, but we have as yet been unable to find him—although we know who he is.

"The practice of thus ditching cars is growing daily. It is all due to the delinquency of insurance companies in not making rigid and immediate investigation of all cars reported as stolen. "We have had reports that there are at least fifty cars ditched in a stone quarry at Elgin and a like number in other quarries at Blue Island and Lyons. We are waiting for a diver now to investigate these places.

Insure Old Cars. "The only way to stop the practice is through the insurance companies. When a man makes application for insurance, his car and himself should be carefully investigated. I know of several instances in which a machine has been insured as a 1920 car when in reality it was of a 1914 or 1915 vintage."

FIRST VICTORY SCORED AGAINST CITY FEE GRAB

$21,000 Payment to E. H.
Lyons Stopped.

State street. Blackwell said at the time he did not know his client or the details of the claim of Lyons.

The city filed a suit against the suit and there the suit rests. On June 27 the city controller asked the corporation counsel for an opinion on voucher No. 28,959.

Acting Corporation Counsel Green wrote City Controller Harding on June 30:

"In reply we beg leave to advise you that we have examined the court files in the suits filed in the United States District court and the Circuit court of Cook county against said Ernest H. Lyons and others, and from such examination it appears that the services of Mr. Lyons referred to in your communication are not involved in any pending suit."

Tribune Lawyers Act.

All the time The Tribune lawyers—McCormick, Kirkland, Patterson & Fleming—kept a watchful eye for voucher No. 28,959. About July 10 the attorneys obtained information that the city controller was about ready to issue a warrant on voucher 28,959, and they sent a letter to City Treasurer Clayton Smith advising him officially of the suits filed regarding expert fees. That was dated July 11.

"While you are not nominally made a party to these bills," reads the letter of the lawyers to Treasurer Smith, "nevertheless it is our understanding that any injunctive relief obtained against the city is binding on you."

"We therefore notify you of the pendency of these actions, and warn you that if you take any steps to pay out any further sums to the persons mentioned, or if you pay out any sums to the persons mentioned, we shall seek to hold you responsible therefor."

Telltale Warrant Issued.

That day, or the day following, the warrant was issued by the controller. It bore the telltale number, 28,959, and was for the sum of $21,000 and in favor of Ernest H. Lyons. On July 13 the law firm of McCormick, Kirkland, Patterson & Fleming wrote another letter to City Treasurer Smith, again calling attention to the suits and to certain paragraphs in particular. The letter then continues:

"The relief prayed in these paragraphs is an injunction against the city of Chicago and each and all of its officers from paying out, directly or indirectly, by credits, cash or any other consideration, any further funds of the city to Walter H. Lyons, or Merigold, for services rendered or services which may be rendered or were supposed to have been rendered to the city by Walter H. Lyons, or Merigold as real estate experts."

"The question whether you should honor this warrant which has been presented to you is to be determined by the courts in these suits; and if you pay the warrant before the determination of the court you will do so at your own peril."

"Mistake," Controller Decides.

It was soon after this letter arrived that the city controller's office decided that the warrant was issued "by mistake" and went searching for it to get it back in the possession of the controller.

It is common report that the controller has issued another warrant for $21,000 in favor of Edward C. Waller Jr., another real estate expert. However, it is said that a messenger found Mr. Waller and retrieved the warrant before the expert had sent it to his bank or presented it to the city treasurer for payment.

Still another warrant has been written for Arthur S. Merigold, the third real estate expert, which is said also to be for $21,000. It has not been learned whether that reached Merigold's hands, but it probably didn't. To these three experts the city paid last year $1,788,079.25.

The council subcommittee, Aldermen Schwartz, Guernsey, and Woodhull, appointed to investigate expert fees, has invited City Controller Harding and Deputy Controller Gosselin to appear this morning for interrogation regarding payment of the $2,742,666.66 fees.

Three Gypsies Arrested for Robbery of Woman

Word was received at the detective bureau last night that Eli, Steve, and Rosie Magill, members of a gypsy band at Crown Point, had been arrested and are being held for the Chicago police. They are charged with stealing $500 from Alvada Davis on July 11. She told detectives the two men held her while the woman tore open her dress and took the money.

leave the country. Johnson stated he recognized the masked men, but no arrests have been made.

ATTACK ON WAR VETERAN

Beaumont, Tex., July 17.—R. F. Scott, 27, of Deweyville, Tex., wearing a coat of tar and feathers, was ejected from an automobile on a crowded downtown street here late tonight.

Scott told the police he was driving along a country road about twenty miles from here early this morning with two women, when, as he stopped to investigate the presence of several automobiles blocking the road, he was seized by a number of masked men who had hidden behind the bushes.

Scott said he is in the logging business at Deweyville. At the outbreak of the world war, he added, he enlisted in the marines, saw action at Chateau Thierry and in the defense of Paris.

He described his abductors as wearing "white conical shaped headpieces and overalls of similar shape."

FIRST WOMAN VICTIM

Dallas, Tex., July 17.—The tarring of Mrs. Beulah Johnson, reported at Tenaha, Tex., tonight, is the first time a woman has been the victim in a score or more similar acts recently in Texas and other southwest states. The secrecy of the perpetrators has usually kept hidden even the exact motive of the attacks, although they have generally seemed to be "for moral reasons."

In the larger number of cases the raiding squads have been disguised in white caps or uniforms similar to those of the Ku Klux Klan in the south in reconstruction days. There have been no indications, however, that branches of the new Ku Klux Klan, which are said to have been organized in considerable numbers in Texas recently, have been concerned in these events.

Took a Reporter Along.
The similarity of the methods and the reported causes of the tarrings have been the only indication of concerted action by an organized secret group. In several cases there were apparently no attempts to avoid publicity, although the groups formed and dispersed quietly.

In a recent Oklahoma case a newspaper reporter who was present when two men were seized on a downtown street was taken along to witness the deportation. In this instance the two men were whipped instead of tarred. The reporter returned with a story of an alleged confession involving a woman which was drawn from the two men before the band administered punishment.

No Action by Officials.
In none of the cases which have come to light so far has any action been reported by city, county, or state officials for the apprehension of the raiders.

Harding to Speak at Printers' Banquet Here

President Harding will press an electric button and thus formally open the Graphic Arts exposition, which will be held in the Coliseum July 23 to 30. Later he will come to Chicago to speak at the banquet of the International Association of Printing House Craftsmen. The exposition, the first of its kind to be held on a large scale, will visualize every form of the printing industry from the manufacture of paper and ink to the final publication.

RUSSIAN REDS DECIDE AGAINST DISSOLVING I. W. W.

3d Internationale Urges More Affiliations.

RIGA, July 17.—The congress of the Third Internationale at its recent meeting in Moscow decided against immediate liquidation of the Industrial Workers of the World organization, says the Moscow Izvestia. The congress decided, however, according to the newspaper, again to ask the Industrial Workers of the World to unite with other radical bodies in America.

William D. Haywood, chief organizer of the I. W. W., lost his fight before the congress of communist trade unions which is now meeting in Moscow, to deprive American delegates representing revolutionary minorities and unions not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, including representatives of the central councils of trades unions in the cities of Detroit and Seattle.

The Trades Union congress decided the dispute by splitting the American vote giving three to the I. W. W., two to independent and eleven to unions not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, including representatives of the central councils of trades unions in the cities of Detroit and Seattle.

The Trades Union congress has decided to work in the utmost harmony with the Third Internationale, but to preserve a separate identity.

In the debate over the American vote Delegate Williams spoke for the I. W. W. and Delegate Flip for the other organizations.

THIS SUICIDE AFTER FAMILY ROW.

David C. Davidson, 34 years old, a clerk, of 1333 Ogden street, attempted to commit suicide last night by turning on the gas in his bedroom. His wife found the door locked and called the Town Hall police who revived him with a pump. He said he had quarreled with his wife and thought she was going to leave him.

FAMINE IN CHINA ENDED WITH BIG CROP. MISSIONARY

Redeem, Wis., July 17.—[Special.]—Every dollar given by Americans for China famine relief went directly for food that was distributed by the Red Cross and the American church missionaries, declared the Rev. H. H. Littell of St. Paul's cathedral, Hankow, China, preaching before the Rachine Episcopal church conference in St. Luke's church.

Father Littell was secretary for eight months of the International China famine relief committee in Hankow, and came to America on furlough this month. Splendid crops in the five provinces that have been affected by drought made famine relief there no longer necessary. Out of 25,000,000 affected by the famine, the actual loss of life was about 500,000.

WANTS U. S. AND STATE RAILWAY AGENCIES UNITED

Washington, D. C., July 17.—[Special.]—Coordination of the activities of the federal and state railroad regulating agencies is advocated by John E. Benton, counsel of the National Association of Railway and Utilities Commissioners in a statement sent to the members of the association. He says: "This can easily be accomplished if it is frankly recognized that neither state nor federal power, within its proper field, can be destroyed by denying its existence, and if it is assumed that state and federal officials, charged with regulation, are equally desirous of exercising their powers properly."

GOFFERS FLOCK TO WASHINGTON FOR OPEN MEET

Washington, D. C., July 17.—[Special.]—With the qualifying rounds of the twenty-first national open golf championship just in the offing, all roads pointed to the national capital, which for the next few days will play the host to the leading lights of the American, English, Scotch, Australian, and Canadian golf worlds.

There has been a constant stream of professional and amateur golfers into the city, who are arriving early in order to get in a few practice rounds over the course of the Columbia Country club at Chevy Chase, Md., where the championship will be decided later in the week.

Jock and Britons Arrive.

Among the arrivals today were Jock Hutchison, the Glen View professional, of Chicago, whose victory in the British open championship at St. Andrews recently makes him as much a favorite as any for the title in the coming tournament. Hutchison was accompanied by George Duncan, the British open champion a year ago, Abe Mitchell, his brilliant English partner, and Johnny Anderson, one of the amateur stars of the metropolitan golf district, who is piloting the British pair on their itinerary of American courses.

Others to arrive included Jim Barnes from Pelham, Peter O'Hara, the Shickamaxon professional who finished second in the Shawnee tournament; Tom Boyd, the Fox Hills professional; McNamara of Cherry Valley.

Bobby Jones Sets Course Record.

Jesse Sweetser, the former intercollegiate champion; Pat O'Hara of Richmond county; Cyril Walker of the Englewood Country club, and Chico Evans, national amateur champion, also reached the scene of next week's contests today.

Some good rounds were made over the difficult course today. Bobby Jones of Atlanta broke the course record with a card of 68. Mitchell and Duncan played a four ball match with Hutchison and Fred McLeod. Hutchison's long drives surprised the large gallery, while Duncan also displayed some fine iron shots.

The executive committee of the U. S. G. A., headed by President Howard Whitney, arrived tonight.

LOCAL GOLF

Former western women's titleholders tie tee off at 9 o'clock this morning in the initial match which will put the annual Chicago women's golf championship tournament under way at the Flossmoor club. Mrs. Fred C. Letts Jr. of Onwentsia and Mrs. W. Francis Anderson of Indian Hill drew the distinction of the opening drives. Mrs. Letts has held the main honors in western golf more than once, and Mrs. Anderson won the 1918 championship.

Miss Elizabeth Klotz of Indian Hill, present city champion, is paired with Mrs. Perry Fink of Kishwaukee, also a former western champion, in another early match. Miss Klotz, who has two of the necessary three annual wins on the championship cup, is in top form for her effort to gain permanent possession of the trophy.

Today's play will be at eighteen holes, the first sixteen to qualify in the championship flight for the first match round tomorrow. There will be three minor flights. Entrants have been restricted to a maximum handicap of 24, but despite this the list of nominations exceeds 100, and other entrants are expected at the tee.

Rudy E. Knapp of Sioux City, runner-up Saturday to Charles Evans Jr. in the final of the western amateur golf championship at Westmoreland, defeated yesterday to H. R. Johnston of St. Paul, being tied for the medal prize. Both players left last night for their homes.

Silas Hess and H. M. Oppenheimer yesterday won their way into the final for the President's cup at Idlewild. Hess defeated Herbert Fried 3 and 1, while Oppenheimer had a home green victory over Walter Becker.

In the first round of match play of the class tournament, results were as follows:

I. M. Stern defeated D. Schmitt, 3 and 1. M. Moss defeated Theo Gelman, 3 and 1. The Horvath defeated Dan Weil, 3 and 1. Harold Goldsmith defeated Leo Kama, 3 and 4. J. Lelewer defeated J. A. Joseph, 3 and 4. J. Lelewer defeated J. A. Joseph, 3 and 4. J. Lelewer defeated J. A. Joseph, 3 and 4.

The annual invitation tournament of the Midlothian club will be staged July 28 to 30. It is open to players having handicaps of twelve or less over par. Four flights of sixteen, each will qualify.

DE GARMO WINS SALMON FLY IN CASTING MEET

L. E. De Garmo, who won the salmon fly with an average cast of 127 feet, was the only individual winner in the bi-monthly tourney of the Washington Park Amateur Casting club yesterday.

In the half ounce accuracy bait, J. C. Payton, F. E. Moffett, and B. F. Dout tied for first with scores of 99.2. In the half ounce bait, unknown distances, J. C. Payton, F. E. Moffett, B. F. Dout, and L. E. De Garmo tied with totals of 98.8. De Garmo, B. F. Dout, and R. C. Nicholson tied in the light tackle accuracy fly with scores of 99.118.

Miss Mary Williams did exceptional casting for a woman and turned in a 98.2-15.

Winning an event and finishing second in two others, Charles C. Lucke carried off honors in the monthly tourney of the Chicago Fly Casting club at Garfield park yesterday. Lucke won the quarter ounce accuracy bait with a score of 99.3. Arado took the dry fly accuracy with a score of 99.3, while McCarthy was first in the light tackle distance fly. He averaged 110.3-3 feet.

New Yorker Wrests Western Net Title from Hayes

Indianapolis, Ind., July 17.—[Special.]—Walter T. Hayes of Chicago, veteran defender of the western tennis singles title today lost in straight sets to the superior play of Vincent Richards, brilliant youthful star of New York, by scores of 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

The experienced youngster built up a commanding lead from the start, and the caliber of the match did not approach that of the Richards-Hennessey final round match Saturday.

Richards played a defensive game after taking his lead, satisfying himself with points on his opponent's wild smashes, while taking many points with expertly placed drives.

Lucian Williams of Chicago, the Yale player, paired with Fritz Bastian of Indianapolis, defeated the Chicago pair, Walter Hayes and Clifton B. Herd, in the final round of the sectional doubles championship, by straight set scores of 7-5, 6-4, 6-3. This was the only big upset of dope.

Doubles Match Is Hot.

The doubles match furnished the only hotly contested tennis of the afternoon. The gallery gasped at the beautiful volley work of the collegians, and was distinctly surprised when they upset the Hayes-Herd combination. Herd's overhead work and Hayes' remarkable recoveries in the deep back court were the elements that kept the veterans in the running in the frequently deuced first set.

Another Chicagoan to win a championship was Miss Marion Leighton, who, with Mrs. H. S. Adams of Indianapolis, won the final in women's doubles.

The two defeated the Cleveland team, Miss Ruth Wise and Miss Ruth King, 6-2, 6-4.

Morris A. C. won 3 to 2 victory over the Astron club tennis team at Washington park yesterday, avenging an earlier defeat.

The two defeated the Cleveland team, Miss Ruth Wise and Miss Ruth King, 6-2, 6-4.

NO. SHORE POLO TEAM RUNS OVER ONWENTSIA, 13-7

Capt. Herbert Lorber's North Shore polo team scored its first victory over the Onwentsia team led by Capt. Bud H. Rader in a hard battle yesterday at the Lincoln and Peterson avenue grounds. The score was 13 to 7. Onwentsia spotted the North Shore team five goals.

Both teams were handicapped by the loss of stars. Bud Seaverns of Onwentsia was out, while Frank Bering, one of the best on the North Shore outfit, was unable to play.

Capt. Rader played a magnificent game for the players. He started the scoring in the first period for Onwentsia, but Pearson came back and evened up for the North Shore. In the third period each team scored two goals. North Shore was still five goals ahead at the end of the sixth period, but Onwentsia cut this down to the seventh by two goals. Then North Shore got a couple across in the eighth, while Onwentsia was unable to count.

Lineup: No. Shore [13], Position. Onwentsia [7], Pearson, No. 1; Armour, Capt. Byfield, No. 2; Rader, Capt. H. Rader, Capt. No. 3; Winston Lorber, Capt. No. 4; Blair, Referee—C. D. Lancaster. Goals—Pearson, 2; Byfield, 2; Lorber, 2; Rader, 2; Blair, 2; Winston, 2; Armour.

LEAGUES TO MEET TONIGHT.

The Liberty and Juvenile leagues will hold their weekly meetings at 128 West Randolph street tonight. President Charles H. Lucke wishes to have all of the managers will give out the plans for the big field day which will be held at the Logan Square park next Sunday.

EXPECT RICKARD TO NAME OPPONENT FOR CARPENTIER TODAY

ONE ON DESCHAMPS

NEW YORK, July 17.—[United Press.]—The wags around Broadway are telling a "secret" on Francis Deschamps. It seems that Carpenter was invited to see the Brennan-Moran fight and was given six tickets. His manager, Deschamps, demanded $100 to produce the Frenchman, and the promoters agreed. Then Deschamps wanted six more tickets. When they came to settle the promoter took out $66 for the tickets and handed Deschamps what was left out of the hundred. He threw it in the promoter's face and the promoter took after him. Order was restored without casualties.

BY HARRY NEWMAN.

New York, July 17.—[Special.]—Tex Rickard after a lengthy vacation of two whole days probably will step out tomorrow and announce the name of his opponent for the championship fight with Carpenter's little pal for their jam-boree next October at one of his fight parlors, either Madison Square garden or that spacious arena in Jersey City.

At the same time, Tex may come through with an announcement on the program he has in mind for the Labor day fight, which is expected that an opponent will be selected for Jack Dempsey on the latter date.

Kane to See Tex Today.

Looks like Bill Brennan for Dempsey and Tom Gibbons for the Frenchman. Eddy Kane, manager of Gibbons, will have another confab with the promoter tomorrow and it is more than likely that all details will be arranged for that quarrel at any rate.

Jack Kearns, the boss of the Dempsey stable, nifty look in on Tex and saw up the date for the champ with Leo P. Flynn's big Irishman.

In the meanwhile, Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh scrapper, is wondering what is going to become of his chances for meeting up with Carpenter. George Engel, his manager, would like to know definitely, too, so that he can go ahead and arrange other bouts for his fighter in the event that he is not likely to get the call with Georges.

Greb Better Than Tommy.

Engel has been making loud squawks about his man being passed up in preference to Gibbons and cannot understand the reason therefor. According to Engel, Greb is a much better man than Gibbons.

George still insists, notwithstanding the denial from the Gibbons party that Greb has beaten Gibbons in all their spars.

Belle Plaines Hand First Defeat to Parkways, 11-0

The Belle Plaines hand the Parkways their first defeat of the season, 11 to 0, at Welles Park, before a crowd of thousands. Jack Wilgall won his sixteenth straight game, allowing only two hits and striking out fourteen.

Score: Parkways.....000 000 000—0 3 4 Belle Plaines.....010 102 70—11 12 1 Batteries—Nietz, Wallack and Meyers; Wilgall and Bennett.

SPORTS through Edgren's EYES

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

JACK DEMPSEY'S plans are all made. He will be ready to defend his championship again as soon as any real promoter finds a real match for him. Visiting his home at Salt Lake, Dempsey names two gentlemen in whose promoting ability he has full confidence.

"Fitzsimmons wants me to meet some one at Benton Harbor on Labor day," says Dempsey. "and if he can find a good opponent I'm willing. Rickard wants me again, too, and it's up to Tex to find somebody. But I'm afraid they'll have a hard job."

There's some talk of Brennan. Well, Bill is a nice fellow, and he's bigger than Carpenter, and he's been in better shape if I met him again. I've knocked him out twice and I can't see why the public should be anxious to see us matched.

"Gibbons is a good man, but he isn't any bigger than Carpenter, and I guess Georges did everything to me that any man of his size can do. He surely had everything in the line of speed and a punch. I'll testify to that!"

Friendly Enemies.

"I'd like to see Martin come along and fight his way up to the top. He's a fine big fellow and might make a good match for me with a little more experience. As for Fulton, he has a lot of stuff and he's big enough, but he

WARD BURTON IS VICTOR IN SHOOT

Ward Burton, local amateur, yesterday won the 100 target event, 16 yards rise, feature contest of the registered tourney of the South Shore Country club with a total of 97. Walter C. Peacock was second with 96, while P. W. Brattain and M. F. Holder tied for third with scores of 94.

J. W. Brattain turned in a perfect total in the twenty-five target match, 16 yards rise, and Dave Thomas took the fifty bird 4 target from the 23 yard rise. A. H. Winkler was high in the twenty-five pairs with a total of 43.

BURMAN TO TRAIN HARD TO DEFEAT NEW YORK MIDGET

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Determined to stop his opponent if possible and confident of winning the popular decision, Joe Burman, Chicago's popular bantam weight, matched to meet Midget Smith of New York in one of the main bouts of the boxing show to be conducted by the Twin Cities A. C. of East Chicago on Friday night, will settle down to strenuous training at the Arcade today.

The local batter returned last Friday from the east, where he defeated Charles Ledoux, French bantamweight champion, in a twelve round bout. He stated he felt better for that fight than he has in the last year, and with another week's training will be in still better shape.

Burman to Do Road Work.

"I want to stop Smith if possible," Burman said recently. "He has never been knocked down and I want to knock him off his pins." That Burman is sincere in his efforts to get into the best of shape is shown by his plans to take to the road this week.

Joe will cover at least five miles on the road each morning until the day of the fight. He will box each afternoon with two or three sparring partners in addition to going through the usual routine of gymnasium work.

Smith is expected here today, according to Matchmaker Dick Curley. The little New Yorker, who is considered a second Terry McGovern, will work in public at one of the local gymnasiums each day.

Montreal Here Today.

Young Montreal of Providence and Jack Sharkey of New York, who will exchange punches in the other half of the double windup, will also be in town today, according to officials of the club. They have been working in eastern gymnasiums, and will continue training at local gyms upon their arrival.

Bud Christiano, local lightweight of the Walsh and Lewis stable, will meet Red Dolan of New Orleans in one of the preliminaries, can be seen in action at the Arcade. Dolan is expected today or tomorrow and will settle down to work at either the Arcade or Ferretti's.

Officials of the Twin Cities A. C. expect to take care of all fans who wish to purchase the lowest priced seats. There will be 4,000 seats available at $3 each and they will be placed on sale on the afternoon of the show. Reserved seat tickets can be purchased at 123 North Dearborn street and 153 North Clark street.

WOODS and Waters WORM FARMING.

THE warm, dry weather has created a worm famine in many sections, which probably accounts for the number of requests we are receiving for reprint directions for raising worms. Here goes:

Get a tight box or tub. Bore a hole in the bottom and along the sides near the top with good drainage. Fill to the top with good, rich soil. Bury the receptacle in a partially shaded place, leaving a level with the ground. Cover with a piece of screening to keep the worms out.

Get some strong, healthy worms put them in the receptacle. Do not bother about getting the worms in pairs, as once recommended by some writers, as an individual worm develops both sperm and egg cells. They breed rapidly and multiply during warm weather.

Keep the dirt in the receptacle sprinkled in hot weather, but be careful about overdoing it. The worms may be fed about once a week. Feed them on a mixture of ground meal, finely chopped table scraps, and green grounds, cracker crumbs and good worm fodder. Food should be sown in moderate quantities, so as to feed five pairs of worms. In warm weather cover the surface of the receptacle with green leaves, give both shade and food to the worms.

MANDELL TO GET PAL MOORE BOUT

Sammy Mandell, bantamweight of Rockford, defeated "Babe" Asher today, has been matched to meet Pal Moore of Memphis in one of the main bouts of Jim Mullen's next boxing show at Aurora on July 29. In the other half of the windup Jimmy Kelly, west coast Italian bantam, will meet Ador.

Soldier Jim Mullen, who was stopped by Tony Melcher in the Aurora show, will meet Al Morris, fighting policeman from the west coast, in a main bout. Two other eight round preliminary bouts will be held and popular prices of $4 and $6 will prevail. Arrangements have been made for a special bout to run within a block of the arena.

PLAY ADJOURNED CHESS MATCHES

Atlantic City, N. J., July 17.—The chess matches adjourned yesterday from the eighth round of the chess tournament were concluded today.

I. S. Turover, Washington, defeated N. T. Whitaker, Baltimore, after moves. David Janowski, champion of France, and M. D. Hago, champion of Philadelphia, and V. Sourin, Washington, drew after 86 moves.

Charles Jaffe of New York won with 4 points, while Janowski had 3 points, and Whitaker and Sourin, Chicago, 5 each. The ninth round will be played tomorrow.

SUNDAY A DAY OF REST? NOT FOR ROBBERS

Hold Up Couple in Auto; Break Victim's Skull.

The Sabbath was no day of rest for stickup men yesterday. Among their victims were Harry Otegard, 1323 North Monticello avenue, and Miss Anna Erickson of 2704 Canton street. They were sitting in an automobile under a viaduct on Potomac avenue when a man jumped on the running board and stuck a revolver under their noses. The loot included $10, a watch and several rings.

Fracture Victim's Skull: Michael Janik, 1301 West Erie street, met two men standing at the corner of Elston avenue and Division street. They beat him with the butt end of their guns, fracturing his skull, and robbed him of $200 and a watch. Five other bandits entered the Towne Cartage company, 748 South Clinton street. After tying Edward Larson, the watchman, and Fred Rison, a chauffeur, to a post they robbed the pair and escaped with a wagonload of merchandise.

Take Auto and $100: W. H. Leland of 2150 Michigan avenue was deprived of his Packard car, $100 and a diamond stickpin by a robber trio at Michigan avenue and 58th street.

Four men got $84 and a watch from John Schlemmer, 2431 North Albany avenue. The holdup occurred early in the morning at Logan boulevard and Mozart street.

Jacob Polovsky, 4657 South Wood street, was robbed of $361 while on a street car.

200 CHILDREN TO START OUTING AS COUNTY GUESTS

Two hundred children, some accompanied by their mothers, will be taken to Camp Reinberg, Deer Grove, forest preserves, today as the guests of Cook county. They will comprise the third battalion to find rest and recreation at this wooded retreat since the season was opened.

Further relays will follow during the summer for periods of ten days each. Following a custom laid down by the late Peter Reinberg, president of the board, President Daniel Ryan, his successor, together with other commissioners, makes a weekly inspection of the camp and its guests. It is understood the forthcoming illustrated year book of the forest preserve district is in the hands of the printer and is expected to be ready after Aug. 1. New maps of the district are now ready for distribution.

Mrs. Kaber Still Helpless as She Begins Sentence

Cleveland, O., July 17.—There was little if any change tonight in the physical condition of Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment in the Marysville state reformatory for the murder two years ago of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber. She remained as helpless and exhausted as when she was carried into the courtroom to hear the verdict of the jury, and has not moved from her bed since being placed there after her return to county jail.

Isabelle Randolph Loses
$2,000 in Jewels.

Mrs. John C. Ryan, formerly Isabelle Randolph, once an actress well known in Chicago, yesterday lost jewels valued at between $2,000 and $2,500. She believes they were lost in the lobby of the Edgewater Beach hotel, where she is living.

"I was waiting in the lobby for a taxi," she said. "I had my 13 months baby, Lenore, on my lap. I was reading the paper and not paying particular attention to the child.

Gems Removed by Baby. "She must have opened my handbag and taken out the charms purse that contained the jewelry. She likes to take things out of the bag. When I stood up, the charms bag may have fallen to the carpet unnoticed. I remember having seen it on my lap before the taxi came."

Mrs. Ryan went to the home of her mother, Mrs. May Randolph, 3440 Elsie place, and then to the station where the elder woman took a train to Milwaukee. It was in the station that Mrs. Ryan discovered her pocketbook was missing.

Wedding Ring in Lost Purse. The purse contained a platinum wrist watch set with twenty-seven diamonds, a gold ring with twenty-four small diamonds, a ring set with two diamonds and a ruby, a signet ring engraved I. R. and J. C. R. on the inside, a lavalliere with twenty-four diamonds and a wedding ring with the initials of herself and her husband.

Mrs. Ryan's last professional appearance in Chicago was with Lenore Ulrich in the "Bird of Paradise." The baby is called after Miss Ulrich.

Mrs. Ryan's husband, a salesman in the employ of the White Motor Truck company, was at one time chief ballist of the Criminal court.

HEAT REFORMS TEN DIPS NABBED ON HOTTEST DAY

Ten pickpockets had met trouble last night. Six of them were grabbed in three grabs by Sergeant Frank Johnson. Two more were captured by Sergeants Essig, Piper, Smith, and Welling. Another pair fell victim to the wiles of Sergeants O'Brien and Burns.

Yesterday was the hottest day of the year. Last night was the hottest night. The cells of the detective bureau are short and narrow and the ceiling is low. The temperature was about 103; the humidity was 1476, 854,32,384. Lockup Keeper Frank Quinn was run out of gas supplying water to them.

At midnight they had lost two pounds apiece. And: "We've reformed—never again!" they said.

Three pickpocket suspects were taken into custody early this morning by Sergeants Sullivan, Carroll, Deyoung, Quinn of the detective bureau after Walter Wood of 1239 Wilcox street had told of losing $36 and two railroad tickets in a Madison street car. The prisoners are Philip Soley, 1380 North Halsted street; James Kelly, 3210 North Halsted street; and Charles Maurer, 3925 Grand boulevard.

Guard Officer Trapped in Yosemite Granite Pocket

Yosemite, Cal., July 17.—A man believed to be Lieut. Fred W. Nichols of the California national guard, which is holding an encampment in Yosemite national park, is trapped in a granite pocket several hundred feet deep here, into which he is believed to have slid while attempting a short cut across the mountains. National guardsmen and forest rangers will attempt a rescue tomorrow, being unable to move about the edge of the pocket with safety in the darkness.

FARM AND GARDEN EQUIPMENT

FIRE BLIGHT CHECKED WITH SPRAY.

Red apples will be scarce this fall and good smooth fruit, free from disease and scars, will no doubt sell at a premium. It will be believed to keep a close watch on his trees from now until the fruit ripens. July and August is the critical period for apples and pears, because they are susceptible to fire blight.

Fire blight is especially detrimental to apple and pear trees. Usually the most effective work in controlling this disease is done in July. Damage may be expected to the tender shoots that have sprung out this season, causing the leaves to wither and turn brown.

This condition may be noticed during the next few weeks, and it is characteristic for the leaves to remain on the tree until the branches have become lifeless.

SAMMY SPOTS

When Noah's ark hit Ararat, His jaguar team went on a bat; The monkey painted 'em yellow and black, And they never did get their right color back.

Our Monday morning class in zoology may find a moral in this childish rhyme. It might be that one should never nod when the mischievous monkey is abroad. Perhaps the more serious of our students may see a warning against going on bats. But we might remark it takes a pretty good sleuth, with a good sized bankroll, to acquire a real bat these days. But there was a day—ah, those days!

If the class will dry its tears we will return to our lecture. Class, meet of the Lincoln park zoo. The jaguar, Sammie Spots, because he is. All jaguars boast of a rich, yellowish brown head, neck and body, with five to seven rows of spots down the spine. These spots are dark rings enclosing a central dab of black. Rather interesting color combination.

The jaguar belongs to the cat family, but some of them measure up to 6 feet 9 inches in length. The average jag is about four feet long, however. They are found all the way from Texas down into Patagonia. In South and Central America they are especially abundant.

Sammy Spots and his brethren feed on weaker animals. Horses, dogs, cattle, and monkeys are their notion of real food. Probably they include monkeys in their menu just because some jaguar once heard that little ditty concerning the reason for the spots.

The jaguar often acquires one habit that is anything but friendly. Given a taste of human flesh, it becomes a man eater. Wouldn't it be rough, even on a fellow with a spotted past, to finish up inside the spots of a jaguar?

But one jaguar trick intrigues us. The beast likes turtle meat, as lots of humans do. It will chase Mr. Turtle into the water, if necessary, then reach under its shell and drag out the body all ready for eating. If lobsters could be managed that easily by humans there would be much more broiling of lobsters.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question. Have the prices of ice cream sodas been reduced in your neighborhood?

Where Asked.

Dearborn and Washington streets.

The Answers.

Jackie Hatch, 4013 Kenmore avenue, actress—No. I haven't noticed the reduction. I pay as much, if not more, for sodas than I used to. I do wish the city experts would get after these profiteers and bring the prices down all over the city.

John Hibner, 1644 West 18th street, pianist—Where I buy sodas they charge exorbitant prices for ice cream and the fruit juices they use. I wish I could buy a glass of sodas.

Maurice Scheck, 854 Cambridge avenue, supervisor—Not that I have noticed. They're still charging 17 cents in my neighborhood. Mother and I went out the other day and had some sodas. We couldn't eat them at all. They were unfit.

Lew Jenkins, 4549 Ellis avenue, entertainer—In my neighborhood it seems as though they are charging more than they used to. I haven't been able to get a good soda all summer in my neighborhood. These owners of ice cream parlors must have the "profiteering blues."

Betty Moore, 4013 Kenmore avenue, actress—Yes, they have reduced prices. At least in the McLean drug store. And they serve good sodas, too. I really enjoy stopping in there on my way home. Other places—well, why go to other places?

It's So Pretty! Beware! It Bites Like an Adder

Be not lured by the floral beauty of the plant with the handsome green leaves and the white, bell-shaped blossoms. The latest health department bulletin. It is poison ivy, a bushy vine which abounds in the vicinity of Chicago.

The infected skin surface should be bathed or swabbed with alcohol, followed by washing with soap and water," continues the bulletin. "If the hands and arms are affected, be careful to wash down instead of up so as to avoid spreading the poison all over other surfaces."

"When the poisoning is well established, soothing applications should be applied, and where the itching is intense a lotion of 5 per cent solution of carbolic acid will usually give relief."

Suspected Labor Victim, Tossed from Auto, Dies

The police are investigating the case of Rasmus Anderson of Franklin Park, who died yesterday in the county hospital after he had been found on the sidewalk at Grand and Natchez avenues with his skull fractured. He said he had been thrown from an automobile in which men he did not know had given him a ride. The police suspect he may have been the victim of labor trouble.

BOY KILLED BY PICNIC TRUCK; LEFT IN STREET

Girl Dies of Injuries When Van Hits Car.

Joseph Falgout, 7 years old, 1537 South Aberdeen street, was killed by a picnic truck at Harrison and Aberdeen streets yesterday.

Everybody in the truck leaped out and ran away. The truck is the property of Kokas & Kalomatos, 3147 West 224 street.

The boy lay in the street for some time. Michael Kinkaid, 945 West Taylor street, took him to the county hospital in his auto, where it was discovered he was dead.

Miss Amy L. White, 2326 North Lawndale avenue, was fatally injured and her brother, Harold, and her brother-in-law, Martin A. Olsen, auditor of the Standard Trust and Savings bank, were slightly hurt in an auto accident near Covert, Mich., eight miles south of South Haven.

Miss White died in the city hospital in South Haven.

Mrs. Joseph D. Annenberg of Aurora suffered the loss of her left hand in an accident at Wilson avenue and Robey street, when a Yellow taxi cab running south in Robey street collided with a large machine, which Mrs. Annenberg's husband was driving west in the other thoroughfare. The impact overturned both cars, and the driver of the taxi cab was cut about the face. Mr. Annenberg was uninjured.

Five Hurt in Crash.

Five persons were seriously injured at Madison street and Central avenue when an auto going forty miles an hour collided with another machine—and sped away.

Lester Lambert, 615 Lyman avenue, Oak Park, who drove one of the cars, his mother, Mrs. Julia Lambert, his sister, Mrs. Irene Hoberg, another sister, Isabelle, and Mrs. Hoberg's daughter, Irene, were the victims. Isabelle's legs were broken, but she saved a 2 weeks old baby from suffering more than minor injuries. The baby is a daughter of Mrs. Hoberg and has not yet been named.

Three Children Hurt. Solomon Elias, 7 years old, 1036 Polk street, was seriously injured by an auto truck driven by Daniel Paladina, 1818 Vernon Park place. The boy was riding a bicycle.

Sarah Sherman, 11, 1244 South Peoria street, was struck by an auto at Halsted and Maxwell streets when she got to her mother's hand. Frank Cripe, 4552 Calumet avenue, drove the car.

Playing in front of her home at 1454 South Morgan street, Stella Ziuko, 6 years old, was hit by an automobile driven by John Kasulis, 651 West 14th street. Her ears were almost torn from her head.

Louis Tader, 3603 West 13th street, after his auto had struck Frank Zahorsky, 2002 South Throop street, took the victim to St. Anthony's hospital.

Blagio Vacchiola, 53, 2124 Kendall street, was knocked down by the Maxwell street station auto patrol.

While returning from a business trip, Miss Janet Olsen, 1423 Reascher avenue, was thrown against an electric light pole at Clark and Harrison streets last night and probably fatally injured when a mail truck driven by Elmer Peters, 164 West Division street, struck the taxi cab in which she was riding.

According to bystanders, the mail truck was going north in Clark street, and the taxi cab was going south on a passing street car. The taxi cab, driven by Stanley Corderay, 4702 West Park avenue, was knocked against the pole and Corderay was thrown out. He suffered lacerations of the scalp.

As a militant suffragette, and then as an area controller in Pas-de-Calais for the English army, she had been associated with many types of women in their periods of readjustment. It was her own observation largely upon which she drew for her books about women, which had the detachment of an adult sort and her estimates of the man's bewilderment about feminine psychology. She nodded her head comprehendingly as Sallie told about the countess' attitude toward her husband.

"You probably don't find that sort of thing in your country," she said. "It's a result of the relation between husbands and demand. Some people would call it economic. It isn't that altogether; it's emotional necessity as well as material. For generations there has been a tragic surplus of women in Great Britain. Now the surplus is more tragic than ever. Our women are not so demanding as yours—they can't be—and for some reasons it's a good thing—for the women—and for other reasons it's a bad thing—for the men. It isn't just a matter of bread, nor of maternity wires to reach and with a properly it's the hunger of the heart, too, and women's spiritual yearning to mother a beloved man. Your countess isn't British, but she lives amongst us and has taken our point of view."

"It comes to me," Sallie answered, "at a time when I—well, when I most needed to know that—that such a thing can be."

She told Janet Pemberton something about her parents,

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

MEN ARE LIKE THAT

BY CLARA E. LAUGHLIN

TEA AT JANET PEMBERTON'S. Sallie had never felt such need of some one to counsel with as she did when she left the countess of Stoke-Poges. She realized that three months ago there would have been no question in her mind as to what she ought to do; but that did not settle for her the problem as she now felt it. She was a different girl now from what she had been three months ago; with a rapidly changing outlook on life.

She thought of her father. He was big, broad, tolerant; but would he look at this thing from any other point of view than that of safety for her, security for her girlish name, assurance for her peace of mind? Sallie doubted it. And Jim? Jim was not selfishly possessive about her in matters like her coming over here and making the most of her opportunities to do the thing she had a gift for. But he might be primitive about a situation like this.

Her mother's counsel she would not ask, because she knew that Millie would favor almost anything which might separate Sallie from Jim; though she would, of course, urge the utmost prudence to avoid being talked about. "But I must talk about this with some one," Sallie told herself, as she walked across Hyde Park on her way home. Then it occurred to her to seek counsel of Janet Pemberton.

What Miss Pemberton's personal experience of life might have been, Sallie could not guess. But she knew that her thinking was of an adult sort and her estimates of the man's bewilderment about feminine psychology. She nodded her head comprehendingly as Sallie told about the countess' attitude toward her husband.

"You probably don't find that sort of thing in your country," she said. "It's a result of the relation between husbands and demand. Some people would call it economic. It isn't that altogether; it's emotional necessity as well as material. For generations there has been a tragic surplus of women in Great Britain. Now the surplus is more tragic than ever. Our women are not so demanding as yours—they can't be—and for some reasons it's a good thing—for the women—and for other reasons it's a bad thing—for the men. It isn't just a matter of bread, nor of maternity wires to reach and with a properly it's the hunger of the heart, too, and women's spiritual yearning to mother a beloved man. Your countess isn't British, but she lives amongst us and has taken our point of view."

"It comes to me," Sallie answered, "at a time when I—well, when I most needed to know that—that such a thing can be."

She told Janet Pemberton something about her parents, and about Linda and Walt. She spoke of Jay Sudduth, and of Mr. Corydon, whose wife lived in California, and of others she knew.

"I'm glad you came to England," Janet said, "before you got to thinking like the rest. You'll build a better happiness for yourself and your Jim on a broader understanding of the relations between women and men. Your countess isn't typical of all of us, you understand; but she's of a type common enough, though they don't all see their situation as clearly as she seems to see hers."

"As for the earl, I don't advise, my dear; it's too great a responsibility. But I think you would almost certainly learn a good deal if you humored this thing a bit. Of course, I don't know you well and I can't guess how you'll take it. Some women always go in too deep—they may come out, and they may bring something worth while out with them; but they have a hard struggle, and it's quite sure to take a lot out of them, too. Most of the women I know seem to be engaged, just now, in seeing how deep they can go emotionally, and not stay under. Some of them are losing, some are gaining, but nearly all are suffering. Suffering isn't a hardship if you can feel yourself growing. But it must be fruitful when you feel yourself weakening, slipping, letting go. And then, there's Jim to consider. What would he think of this?"

"I don't know," Sallie answered. "No question of anything like this has ever come up between us."

"You wouldn't feel sure that he'd understand your point of view, your willingness to consider a thing like this?"

"Well, no. I wouldn't feel sure. He might. But again, he might not."

"To be?" Janet interposed, "like Caesar's wife—above suspicion, for Caesar's sake and not just for her own?"

Sallie nodded. Janet leaned forward and gave a not-too-vigorous poke to the least diminutive piece of coal in her scanty fire; then she sat, poker in hand, staring at the sputter she had started.

BRYAN WINS CALL FOR LABOR DAY OVER FREE BEER

Delegate Says Brew Would Get Bigger Crowd.

William Jennings Bryan may be a speaker at the Labor day festivities of the Chicago Federation of Labor, but he will not be as welcome as he might have been before the days of no per cent beer.

"The people who will attend the celebration Labor day will not relish hearing a man of Bryan's type speak," declared Delegate Frankle, after hearing a committee report that Senator La Follette and Bryan had accepted invitations to address them. "When you selected Bryan you picked the model who was partially responsible for the enactment of the Volstead act. If you want to draw a crowd cut the list of speakers and advertise that you will have eighty barrels of good 6 per cent beer for free distribution. The park will not hold the mob."

Commoner Will Be Lonesome. "On Labor day," asserted another delegate, "I believe Bryan will be the only one in the park who advocates prohibition. Certainly I hope you will trust him among the crowd. Prohibition isn't the only issue upon which the Commoner can deliver a speech."

"Take the question of disarmament and there is no one in the country better able to speak than Bryan." According to the committee's report, Ignace Paderewski, former premier of Poland, has consented to speak if he is in the United States on Labor day. President Ebert of Germany and President de Valera of the Irish republic, also have been invited to attend or send their representatives.

Wants Chaplin on List. After John Willis, chairman of the arrangements committee, finished reading the names of the invited speakers Emil Arnold of the Painters' union, James J. Connelley of the Bakers' union, and his friend, asked if Charlie Chaplin's name couldn't be added to the list.

The meeting was enlivened by a debate between representatives of the Bakers' union and officials of the Bakery Wagon Drivers' union. The bakers, who have been on strike since June 1, charge the drivers with ceding the nonunion men who filled their places by taking them to and from work in their wagons.

100,000 TO SING
AT PAGEANT IN GREAT FESTIVAL

The largest singing festival ever held in this country, with more than 100,000 haryards functioning, is to be one of the features of the Pageant of Progress exposition.

Community singing, led by various choral societies in Chicago, will be a nightly event. Arrangements have been completed to place 10,000 members of singing unions on boats alongside the municipal pier. The other 90,000 will sit on the pier itself and give voice to words contained in pamphlets to be distributed to them. There will be both classical and popular music.

Among the societies to be represented are the Polish choir, United Polish chorus, the Choral Community Singers, the Italian Singing societies, the German Singing union, and the Jugo-Slav, Swiss, and Danish singing societies.

GUNMAN'S 2 NEW GUNS WOUND BURNER AND WIFE

Harry Stead, gunman, burglar, and ex-convict, purchased two new .45 revolvers yesterday. Then he hid himself to Clark's saloon, 1225 West Madison street. For two hours he paraded in and out. On one trip he met Mrs. Clark, wife of Harry Clark, owner of the saloon. Mrs. Clark weighs 200 pounds.

There was a dispute, then a shot. Mrs. Clark ran to the street wounded in the forehead. The detective bureau rifle squad came on the run. Stead was captured. During the battle Clark was shot in the foot.

Stead was released six weeks ago from Jefferson City prison after serving a five year term. There are several indictments against him here, which will be revived.

Evanston Motorcycle Police to Learn to Fly

Evanston's motorcycle policemen are to become versed in cloud travel. W. C. Burmeister, official air policeman of the Warb, made this announcement yesterday when his aviation field was opened at Dempster street, west of the drainage canal. Beginning Aug. 1, he said, all of the Evanston speed discouragers will be put through a preliminary training so they will be able to ride in pursuit of auto bandits without losing their equilibrium.

Urges Greeks Here to Give Allegiance to U. S.

Three thousand Greek Liberals of Chicago gathered at Carman's hall yesterday to head Frustrations Coumouvakia, governor of Athens under Venizelos. He urged his hearers to give their allegiance to the land of their adoption, and declared they would see a democracy in Greece within a short time.

Three in Highland Park Prey of Infant Paralysis

Three cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in Highland Park during the last few days. The situation is not alarming, according to a proclamation issued by the health department, but parents have been advised to keep their children home from the next two or three weeks.

By Mae Tineé

"THE MYSTERY ROAD" for David Powell is just one woman after another. Translated via the subtitle it means the road of life upon which youth sets forth expecting the best of everything, meeting a lot of disappointments and tribulations and finding that, after all, it's a pretty good old road if you watch your step.

The picture, I understand, was made in England. Certainly the scenery would lead you to suppose so. Mr. Powell himself is the only person in the cast either you or I know well. The others, however, are exceedingly capable workers, who without doubt received moderate remuneration for their efforts, but saw that those same efforts were up to snuff just the same. Believe you me, as Nina Wilcox Putnam says, the day is at hand when the people who labor in motion pictures will be salaried like the rest of the world's workers.

Mr. Powell is cast as Gerald Dember, son of an earl, and the story has to do with three love affairs, which rather complicate life for him. The subject matter is furnished by E. Phillips Oppenheim. Methinks that little Nadia Ostravka—it's an awful name, but she's a nice girl—will be much heard from in the future. Technically the production is well put on, and Mr. Powell, who is likable usually, was never more so than in this, his latest film.

Write and tell me what you think of the foreign actors. It will be interesting to know your opinions.

CLOSEUPS

Sees Hayakawa and his wife, Teuri Akia, are spending their vacation in New York.

The Mack Sennett studio will be closed for two months this summer. This is the first time Mr. Sennett ever has done such a thing, but he says he's well ahead and this will "equalize the market."

The Ravinia Monday night dinner-dance-photoplay occasions are most successful, I am told. Mr. Eckstein wears a broad grin now every wash day.

Cleo Ridgely is back working for Paramount after several years' absence. She will be seen in the coming Betty Compson picture, "The Woman in the Case."

Marcia Manon has, her press agent says, gone in for equestrian activities, her husband having presented her with a horse.

David Warfield will be seen on the screen in "The Return of Peter Grimm" and "The Music Master." (Seems to me I told you that before.)

Advices Washtub as Woman's Exerciser

Indoor athletics for women? Why not? Dr. Emile L. Lobdell says there is nothing to develop the muscles of the back like sweeping the kitchen and the dining room.

"And there's nothing like the wash-tub to develop the feminine biceps," she continued. "Many women come to me complaining their backs ache. I tell them to work it out."

Dr. Lobdell is one of many who replied yesterday to statements of English authorities that women engaging in athletics or hard work did injury to future generations.

Eat Your Way to Health

"Iron deficiency" shows in pale cheeks and flabby muscles. The amount of iron needed for normal health must be supplied in the food you eat. You must eat your way to health and strength—there is no other way.

Shredded Wheat

with raisins or other fruits make a meal that contains just enough iron, just enough mineral salts and just enough bran to promote natural bowel exercise. A perfect food, ready-cooked and ready-to-eat.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker. A crisp, whole wheat toast eaten with butter or soft cheese.

No Rest for the Weary.

A few years ago I went to a neighboring town to attend the county fair. Our party consisted of my husband, two children, and myself. As hotel accommodations in the town are always crowded to capacity during fair week, we engaged a room with two beds in advance.

While the children and I were disrobing Horace went down to the lobby to see a friend, saying he would be back in a few minutes; so, when I heard a light knock, I supposed he had returned, and opened the door. There stood the clerk with a strange woman, who walked in and announced that Mr. Blake had said she could sleep there.

I could not evict her under the circumstances. In a few moments a second knock sounded, my self-invited (so far as I was concerned) guest opened the door, and another woman and a little girl entered.

The room was poorly ventilated, and soon became unbearable when occupied by six people. There was a train back home at 1 o'clock, which we could catch. We arose and dressed, re-packed our suitcase, and went to the home of a friend and begged accommodation.

The following year at fair time we were living in another town in the same county. An acquaintance said they preferred to drive to the fair in their car, and then they could camp out.

"That would be better," I agreed.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.
Salad Sandwiches.

Suppose you do not want a plain lettuce salad and have not enough material for a mixed salad, yet have some of the ingredients that give a salad character. The top half of stems of lettuce, though ever so small, are all right for seasoning salads and sandwich fillings if cut in about as thin crosswise slices as can be. A few ripe olives or green ones may be added to the celery and half a dozen nut meats cut fine.

Mix all with some mayonnaise and spread thin on a piece of lettuce as a filling for small sandwiches. A good sound head of lettuce can be so manipulated as to help in the making of from fifty to a hundred small sandwiches about two inches square or round ones of that diameter. The lettuce alone, with some mayonnaise, will do, since there are many people who like mayonnaise alone on bread. Nasturtium leaves may take the place of the lettuce and give something more piquant.

A nut bread with any of these slight fillings is dainty to taste and fairly a giant in calories, a given bulk having as many of these probably as a lump of sugar of the same size.

The mayonnaise may be made with two egg yolks, for security's sake, and the two egg whites used in what we may call a white nut bread, with the following ingredients: Two egg whites, one-half cup of sugar, one teaspoon of salt, one cup of milk, two and one-fourth cups of flour, four level teaspoons of baking powder—if following rule but less by a half if following dietetic judgment—three-fourths of a cup of chopped nuts, or one-half cup of nuts, four nuts lightly. Bake this in four pans of the sort to give loaves yielding two inch square slices.

A FRIEND IN NEED

"I wonder if there is some one who would be kind enough to help me out. My husband has not been working for some time—I do washing but do not make enough to keep body and soul together. My husband is greatly in need of clothing and shoes. He wears 9 shoes and size 38 clothing. I have three children. I have no buggy for the baby. I wish I could get one, so I could put her outdoors to sleep while I am washing. We live in two small attic rooms. We have had more than our share of sickness. Please try to help me. Mrs. K. D."

I have registered your request and will send your address to any one who writes that they can supply the things you ask for.

"I am a widow with five children—Mary, 11; Jack, 9; Hannah, 7; Margaret, 5, and baby, 2. Will you please help me to get some shoes and clothing for these children? I can make things over, so any outgrown clothing sent me will be welcome. Mrs. S. B."

Here is a widow and her little family in need of clothes. I hope they will not have to wait long for assistance.

Lake Forest to Show Choicest Flowers at Annual Exhibit

FINAL preparations are being made for the annual midsummer flower show, which has been a yearly event since 1907. It is held under the auspices of the North Shore Horticultural society and the Garden club of Illinois.

On Saturday from 11 a. m. until 10 p. m. and on Sunday from 1 until 10 p. m. the exhibits will be on display at the Gorton school in Lake Forest. The proceeds, after expenses are paid, are to be used for civic improvement.

Most of the large and small estates will send exhibits, from especially fine grown vegetables to large greenhouse displays.

Holders of tickets also will have the privilege of seeing four estates, which will be designated by flags displayed at the entrance drives. The gardens of these places are of varied type—formal Italian at the Harold F. McCormick place; informal English at the Cyrus Hall McCormick; a beautiful display of evergreens at the Edward L. Ryerson's; and a stone walled garden at Keene H. Addington's. It is advisable to go to the Harold McCormick estate first and to walk from there through the estate of Cyrus McCormick. Taxicabs will be available and guides will be in attendance.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Tiffany Blake, chairman; Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Mrs. Albert A. Sprague, Mrs. Augustus A. Carpenter and Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Arrick have gone to Les Cheneaux, Mich., for the summer.

Mrs. Roger Shepard of St. Paul, Minn., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer of Lake Forest. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryerson gave a luncheon yesterday for Mrs. Shepard.

Mr. John H. Winterbotham arrived yesterday from Charlotte, Vt., to meet her daughter, Theodora, who returned from a trip to the orient with her husband, Arthur Ryerson. They will return today to the estate for the remainder of the season. Mrs. Ryerson also will leave today for Cooperstown, N. Y., after a brief visit at her town house, 2700 Lake View avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Childs and daughter, Madeline, of Lake Forest have returned from New London, Conn. The Misses Mary and Clara Cudahy have returned from California and will be at the Drake for several weeks until they open their house at 1501 North State parkway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Prescott Hunt Jr. and Miss Marie J. Rozet of 1008 North La Salle avenue have taken a house at Lake Forest for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom Jr. of Lake Forest, who went abroad in the early spring, will return to Europe until the middle of October, when they will return and will occupy the G. W. Blossom house in Hubbard Woods, their own having been leased for a lengthy period.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seaverns Jr. of Lake Forest have left for a motor trip through northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Myron H. Spades of 221 East Walton place has gone to the summer with her mother, Mrs. John C. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Rogers and sons of 1341 North State street, are spending a few weeks at Waukegan, Ill.

Miss Mildred Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Allen of Winnetka, has gone to Trout Lake, Wis., for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Lewis C. Curtis of the Virginia hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell D. Follansbee of 65 Bellevue place have gone to their cottage on Little Traverse bay to remain until late September.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Judd of 408 Roslyn place, who have spent the early summer at Glen View, will leave within a few days for a two months' stay at Rockland, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Dutton have returned from a month's stay at Lake George, N. Y., and are at the Moraine hotel in Highland Park for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bodman and small son and Mrs. Bodman's mother, Mrs. Nicholas de Feres of 23 East Division street, left yesterday for Gloucester, Mass.

Mrs. William Stanley North and Miss Helen North of 7 West Walton place, who have spent the early summer at their farm near Lake Forest, are leaving today for a several weeks' stay in California.

Mrs. William A. Butolph and Miss Dorothy Butolph of 5429 Cornell avenue have gone to Charlevoix for a month's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Calhoun of Washington, D. C., president of the Woman's National foundation, is visiting Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman at Southampton.

New York, July 17.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bartholomew of 803 Fifth avenue, are leaving Monday to be the guests of Mrs. J. Fred Pierson at Newport.

Mrs. Joel David Woodside is in Southampton for a few weeks.

Mrs. Henry Van Dyke of Princeton, who has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton Gibson, at Sheffield, Mass., has now recovered so far that the Rev. Dr. Van Dyke hopes to be able to take her to their summer home in Maine by the end of July.

Farmers to Give Armenia 5,000,000 Bushels of Grain

FIVE million bushels of wheat and corn for the destitute widows and orphans of Armenia and Syria will be collected by the near east relief in cooperation with various agricultural organizations. It was announced by National Campaign Director Alfonso E. Wilson yesterday.

The collection of the gift grain will be made during September and October. Last spring 5,000,000 bushels were offered, but only 1,000,000 were used because of the limited facilities for handling the grain.

"The farmers of Armenia and Syria have not been permitted to remain in any one community long enough to reap a crop of any description," said Mr. Wilson. "In this country, while farmers have been hard hit by the high cost of production and falling prices, they have been blessed with an abundant surplus."

By giving away their surplus grain to starving exiles in the near east, farmers tend to boost the prices which they will receive for what is left.

WEDDED 54 YEARS

Col. and Mrs. A. J. Greenfield.

FIELD celebrated their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary yesterday at their home, 3420 Fullerton street. Col. Greenfield, who is 85 years of age, was born in Belleville, Pa. He served in the Union army through the civil war. He was captain of the 22d Pennsylvania cavalry and participated in more than seventy-five battles and skirmishes. His promotion to colonel was due to his gallant service during the campaign of 1864 in the Shenandoah valley. He married Louise Castle, daughter of Col. Edward H. Castle, of Chicago, July 17, 1867. She was born in Kingston, Canada, in 1843, while her parents were visiting there.

Mrs. Shears-Carnovale also was greatly interested in civic movements, and was a member of the Chicago Woman's club, the Woman's City club, the Port Society, the Friday club, and the Cordon.

FUR TALKS
By ROBT-STAEDETER

Although it seems we are imposing a hardship upon our customers when we suggest they attend to their remodeling and repairing needs at this time, it is really to their advantage to do so.

Try-ons or instructions are only a matter of a few minutes—and a few minutes now may mean weeks saved when you wish your fur the first cold days this winter.

Inspection of our new models at this time, also has its advantages.

fit

—Not Space

There is a difference. Any shoe, if it is large enough, will permit the toes to stretch out. But that's not fit. Nor comfort either. The proper shoe is shaped after the natural lines of the foot, with a soft flexible shank fitting snugly up in under the arch, properly designed heels, the whole fashioned of light sturdy leather.

That's the Ground Gripper—Do it today.
